“Two Families, Eleven Children Are Made Homeless By Fire”

Tot Starts Blaze Which Destroyed Two Dwellings; People Destitute

Christmas will hold little joy for eleven children of two families who live in Sciotoville Near the C. & O. Bridge, as a result of a fire started by a tot, which destroyed tow homes and all household effects, Monday morning.

Ernest, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown had been given a sack with which to play. Standing in front of an open grate he lighted the paper and set the Christmas tree on fire. By the time the family removed the children, ranging between the ages of eight months and 16 years from the house, the whole structure was ablaze. The flames spread so rapidly that all furniture and clothing was lost.

Sparks from the burning Brown home set fire to the house occupied by Clyde Miller , and owned by Robert Leadinger, of Dogwood Ridge. Only a small amount of clothing was saved from the blaze.

Anna, eight years of age, enacted the role of heroine, when she fought her way through the flames and smoke two save her younger sister, Maryland, aged two. Firemen stated they thought a cat or dog had been left in the house and they were shocked when the little girl led her sister from the blazing structure.

By the time the fire companies arrived on the scene, both houses were burning rapidly. Property loss was estimated at $1,000 for each house, unprotected by insurance.

Those made homeless are Mrs. and Mrs. Brown, and their eight children: Noah,10; Ellis, 14; Elza, 10; Anna, 8; Ernest, 4; Maryland, 2; Ruth, 8 months and Mr. and Mrs. Miller and their three children: Ray, 4; Lucille, 2, and Elbert, 7 months. [not mentioned but likely present was son Ralph Brown who would have been 6 yrs. old]* **

To the stricken families have come the services of friends and societies. They have been granted the use of a house at 6453 Bahner Road, Sciotoville and through the efforts of the Bureau of Community service, they have been supplied with food, furniture and clothing. In order that Christmas will not be bleak and unpleasant for the youngsters, the Boy Scouts have delivered several baskets of toy and holiday gifts. Through the effort of Fire Chief Robert Leelon (SP?) and members of the Fire Department two truck loads of furniture and clothing have been taken to the destitute families.

Firemen have taken up a collection and are aiding in collecting clothing and food for the destitute families. They ask for persons interested in aiding them to call the Gallia Street station. They will be glad to call for all donations in the way of clothing, food and money. Besides the Bureau of Community Service, the Salvation Army, the Union Mission and the Ben Our Lodge have given aid. Several citizens have also helped.

Bandits Draw Death-Cards In Poker-Game Hold-Up; Irate Player's Aim Deadly

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—(AP)—Peter Cardone, a Brooklyn manufacturing chemist, who is also an expert pistol shot was the recipient of hundreds of congratulatory messages today for killing two of four armed men who attempted to hold up a poker game early Sunday morning in the home of a friend.

Cardone, who was shot through the arm during a gun battle in which fourteen shots were exchanged, was more concerned than elated, however, because two innocent bystanders also were killed.

Police Commissioner Whalen personally congratulated Cardon, saying that the city needed more men with the courage and marksmanship to shoot when assaulted by thugs.

Ten men were engrossed in the poker game at the home of Fred Rendino in Brooklyn, when the four armed men appeared and ordered them to hold up their hands.

One of the intruders kicked Cardon on the shin when he failed to obey. Angered, Cardone drew his weapon and began firing.

Two of the bandits, indentified later as Pasquale Belmonte and Emanuel Frasca, were dropped by Cardone's unerring aim, shot through the forehead. Meanwhile, during the general melee, Rocco Massio, a chauffeur, who was an onlooker, was killed by a shot from one of the robbers while Nicholas Bulzone, one of the players, was killed when he jumped from a window. The other two hold-up men fled.

With the tables tastefully decorated in keping with the Christmas season, the Rotary club held its meeting Monday noon at the Elks club parlors. In addition to the decorations, the waiters were all diked out in Santa Claus costumes. As a special treat the club feasted on venison, the gift of Rotarian Charlie Han-lighted Portsmouth and other audiences, was present and gave several vocal selections for the pleasure of the Rotarians. Henry Bertram, the chairman of the meeting, made a short address, following which an early adjournment took place.

Silent tribute was paid to the memory of Mr. P. H. Harsha, a Rotarian, who passed away last Friday.

MRS. WELLS CRAWFORD

Mrs. Edith Pray Crawford, wife of Wells Crawford, assistant postmaster here, died at 12:35 a. m. Monday at her home, 1721 Hutchins street. She had been in poor health for three years, and her condition had been serious for several weeks. Her death was attributed to complications.

Mrs. Crawford, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pray, pioneer residents of Portsmouth, was born in this city on June 13, 1884. She was united in marriage to Wells Crawford, and to their happy union three children were born, Edwin and William, twins, and Wells, Jr. She is also survived by four sisters and one brother, Mrs. Bertha Brounell, of St. Louis, the Misses Nettie, Alice and Ruth Pray, of Hutchins street, and Charles E. “Two Families, Eleven Children Are Made Homeless By Fire”

Tot Starts Blaze Which Destroyed Two Dwellings; People Destitute

Christmas will hold little joy for eleven children of two families who live in Sciotoville Near the C. & O. Bridge, as a result of a fire started by a tot, which destroyed tow homes and all household effects, Monday morning.

Ernest, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown had been given a sack with which to play. Standing in front of an open grate he lighted the paper and set the Christmas tree on fire. By the time the family removed the children, ranging between the ages of eight months and 16 years from the house, the whole structure was ablaze. The flames spread so rapidly that all furniture and clothing was lost.

Sparks from the burning Brown home set fire to the house occupied by Clyde Miller , and owned by Robert Leadinger, of Dogwood Ridge. Only a small amount of clothing was saved from the blaze.

Anna, eight years of age, enacted the role of heroine, when she fought her way through the flames and smoke two save her younger sister, Maryland, aged two. Firemen stated they thought a cat or dog had been left in the house and they were shocked when the little girl led her sister from the blazing structure.

By the time the fire companies arrived on the scene, both houses were burning rapidly. Property loss was estimated at $1,000 for each house, unprotected by insurance.

Those made homeless are Mrs. and Mrs. Brown, and their eight children: Noah,10; Ellis, 14; Elza, 10; Anna, 8; Ernest, 4; Maryland, 2; Ruth, 8 months and Mr. and Mrs. Miller and their three children: Ray, 4; Lucille, 2, and Elbert, 7 months. [not mentioned but likely present was son Ralph Brown who would have been 6 yrs. old] ***

To the stricken families have come the services of friends and societies. They have been granted the use of a house at 6453 Bahner Road, Sciotoville and through the efforts of the Bureau of Community service, they have been supplied with food, furniture and clothing. In order that Christmas will not be bleak and unpleasant for the youngsters, the Boy Scouts have delivered several baskets of toy and holiday gifts. Through the effort of Fire Chief Robert Leelon (SP?) and members of the Fire Department two truck loads of furniture and clothing have been taken to the destitute families.

Firemen have taken up a collection and are aiding in collecting clothing and food for the destitute families. They ask for persons interested in aiding them to call the Gallia Street station. They will be glad to call for all donations in the way of clothing, food and money. Besides the Bureau of Community Service, the Salvation Army, the Union Mission and the Ben Our Lodge have given aid. Several citizens have also helped.

Bandits Draw Death-Cards In Poker-Game Hold-Up; Irate Player's Aim Deadly

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—(AP)—Peter Cardone, a Brooklyn manufacturing chemist, who is also an expert pistol shot was the recipient of hundreds of congratulatory messages today for killing two of four armed men who attempted to hold up a poker game early Sunday morning in the home of a friend.

Cardone, who was shot through the arm during a gun battle in which fourteen shots were exchanged, was more concerned than elated, however, because two innocent bystanders also were killed.

Police Commissioner Whalen personally congratulated Cardon, saying that the city needed more men with the courage and marksmanship to shoot when assaulted by thugs.

Ten men were engrossed in the poker game at the home of Fred Reading in Brooklyn, when the four armed men appeared and ordered them to hold up their hands.

One of the intruders kicked Cardon on the shin when he failed to obey. Angered, Cardone drew his weapon and began firing.

Two of the bandits, indentified later as Pasquale Belmonte and Emanuel Frasca, were dropped by Cardone's unerring aim, shot through the forehead. Meanwhile, during the general melee, Rocco Massio, a chauffeur, who was an onlooker, was killed by a shot from one of the robbers while Nicholas Bulgone, one of the players, was killed when he jumped from a window. The other two hold-up men fled.

5 Sons In War From One Home At Sciotoville

Portsmouth Times 1943

Five sons in service, four of them overseas, and a sixth boy at home "rarin' to go" is the proud boast5 of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown of Front St., Sciotoville.

Three are serving in the U.S.Navy, one in the Army Signal Corps, and one in the Army air Corps, with service re4cords ranging from four to thirty-three months.

First to enter service was Ernest James Brown, ship fitter third class, who entered the Navy in October, 1941, even before the Pearl Harbor was attacked. He has had two tankers lost under him somewhere in the Atlantic in a period of eight months.

March, 1943, he was aboard a tanker when it sunk in the4 Atlantic, and the experience was repeated the next November. The second tanker was not destroyed but brought back to port for repairs.

After November, 1943, Ernest went to school at the naval base in Richmond, VA, and was graduated as a welder. Recently, he sailed on a new ship from New York. Left the States in a hurry.

The second son, Ralph Earl Brown, shiftier second class, volunteered for Navy duty immediately after the Pearl Harbor disaster. After twenty-one days training at Great Lakes, he went directly to the great Hawaiian base, where he received further training.

Until seven months ago, he was on duty at the naval air station at Kaenohe Bay on the island of Oahu in the Hawaiian group, refueling ships and planes. His exact whereabouts are now unknown.

Sgt. Ern Ellis Brown is the only one of the five still located in the States. He is serving as a "trouble shooter" in the Signal Corps at Ft. Ord, CA. An instructor in first aid there, he expects to be assigned overseas duty soon. He received his training at Camp Polk,LA. His wife is with him in California.

The only flying member of the family, Cpl. Elza M. Brown, who has been promoted to sergeant, is a tail gunner on a B - 24 Liberator bomber. Eliza has seen action in Europe, but doesn't like to write home about it.

He has been in service for seventeen months having been graduated from Jonesboro College AK and receiving training at Orland, FL before going overseas in January of this year.

Noah Lewis Brown, the baby in service, went into the Navy four months ago and sailed recently from Charles, SC on an LSM. a fireman first class, he took his training at Little Creek, VA and is now with an amphibious unit. His wife, Mrs. Hanna Mary Brown and their four children reside at 6444 Gallia St.

Ern and Ralph were born in Kentucky, but the other were born in Sciotoville. All five attended East High School, where they showed an interest in sports, though only Ralph and Elza made the varsity football and basketball teams.

Jane Brown is proud she has contributed five boys to Uncle sam's fighting forces. Mrs. Brown has donated four pints of blood to the Red Cross and is looking forward to the time when she can say she has given a pint for each son.

The father is employed as a track walker for the Norfolk & Western Railway.

The family which originally consisted of twelve children is rather scattered now.

Bandits Draw Death-Cards In Poker-Game Hold-Up; Irate Player's Aim Deadly

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—(AP)—Peter Cardone, a Brooklyn manufacturing chemist, who is also an expert pistol shot was the recipient of hundreds of congratulatory messages today for killing two of four armed men who attempted to hold up a poker game early Sunday morning in the home of a friend.

Cardone, who was shot through the arm during a gun battle in which fourteen shots were exchanged, was more concerned than elated, however, because two innocent bystanders also were killed.

Police Commissioner Whalen personally congratulated Cardon, saying that the city needed more men with the courage and marksmanship to shoot when assaulted by thugs.

Ten men were engrossed in the poker game at the home of Fred Rendino in Brooklyn, when the four armed men appeared and ordered them to hold up their hands.

One of the intruders kicked Cardon on the shin when he failed to obey. Angered, Cardone drew his weapon and began firing.

Two of the bandits, indentified later as Pasquale Belmonte and Emanuel Frasca, were dropped by Cardone's unerring aim, shot through the forehead. Meanwhile, during the general melee, Rocco Masulo, a chauffeur, who was an onlooker, was killed by a shot from one of the robbers while Nicholas Bulzone, one of the players, was killed when he jumped from a window. The other two hold-up men fled.

Two Families, Eleven Children Are Made Homeless By Fire

Tot Starts Blaze Which Destroyed Two Dwellings; People Destitute

Christmas will hold little joy for eleven children of two families who live in Sciotoville, near the C. & O. bridge, as a result of a fire, started by a little tot, which destroyed two homes and all household effects, Monday morning.

Ernest, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown, had been given a sack with which to play. Standing in front of an open grate, he lighted the paper and set the Christmas tree on fire. By the time the family removed the children, ranging between the ages of eight months and 16 years, from the house, the whole structure was ablaze. The flames spread so rapidly that all furniture and clothing was lost.

Sparks from the burning Brown home set fire to the house occupied by Clyde Miller, and owned by Robert Leedinger, of Dogwood Ridge. Only a small amount of clothing was saved from the blaze.

Anna, eight years of age, enacted the roll of a heroine, when she fought her way through the flames and smoke to save her young sister, Maryland, aged two. Firemen stated that they thought a cat or dog had been left in the house and they were shocked when the little girl led her sister from the blazing structure.

By the time the fire companies arrived on the scene, both houses were burning rapidly. Property loss was estimated at $1,000 for each house, unprotected by insurance.

Those made homeless are Mr. and Mrs. Brown, and their eight children, Noah, 16, Ellis, 14, Elsa, 10, Anna, 8 Ernest 4 Maryland 2 Ruth 8 months, and Mr. and Mrs. Miller and their three children, Ray, 4, Lucille, 2, and Elbert, 7 months.

To the stricken families have come the services of friends and societies. They have been granted the use of a house at 8453 Balmer Road, Sciotoville, and through the efforts of the Bureau of Community Service they have been supplied with food, furniture and clothing. In order that Christmas will not be bleak and unpleasant for the youngsters, the Boy Scouts have delivered several baskets of toys and holiday gifts. Through the efforts of Fire Chief Robert Leedom and members of the Fire Department two truckloads of furniture and clothing have been taken to the destitute families.

Firemen have taken up a collection and are aiding in collecting clothing and food for the destitute families. They ask for persons interested in aiding them to call the Gallia street station. They will be glad to call for all donations in the way of clothing, food and money. Besides the Bureau of Community Service, the Salvation Army, the Union Mission and the Ben Hur Lodge have given aid. Several citizens have also helped.

Bandits Draw Death-Cards In Poker-Game Hold-Up; Irate Player's Aim Deadly

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—(AP)—Peter Cardone, a Brooklyn manufacturing chemist, who is also an expert pistol shot, was the recipient of hundreds of congratulatory messages today for killing two of four armed men who attempted to hold up a poker game early Sunday morning in the home of a friend.

Cardone, who was shot through the arm during a gun battle in which fourteen shots were exchanged, was more concerned than elated, however, because two innocent bystanders also were killed.

Police Commissioner Whalen personally congratulated Cardon, saying that the city needed more men with the courage and marksmanship to shoot when assaulted by thugs.

Ten men were engrossed in the poker game at the home of Fred Rendino in Brooklyn, when the four armed men appeared and ordered them to hold up their hands.

One of the intruders kicked Cardon on the shin when he failed to obey. Angered, Cardone drew his weapon and began firing.

Two of the bandits, indentified later as Pasquale Belmonte and Emanuel Frasca, were dropped by Cardone's unerring aim, shot through the forehead. Meanwhile, during the general melee, Rocco Massic, a chauffeur, who was an onlooker, was killed by a shot from one of the robbers while Nicholas Bulzone, one of the players, was killed when he jumped from a window. The other two hold-up men fled.

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me: Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me: Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be
no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

For though from out
our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far
I hope to see my Pilot
face to face

PILGRIM STAIRS CANTERBURY

IN REMEMBRANCE

Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be
no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

For though from out
our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far
I hope to see my Pilot
face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

“Two Families, Eleven Children Are Made Homeless By Fire”

Tot Starts Blaze Which Destroyed Two Dwellings; People Destitute

Christmas will hold little joy for eleven children of two families who live in Sciotoville Near the C. & O. Bridge, as a result of a fire started by a tot, which destroyed tow homes and all household effects, Monday morning.

Ernest, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown had been given a sack with which to play. Standing in front of an open grate he lighted the paper and set the Christmas tree on fire. By the time the family removed the children, ranging between the ages of eight months and 16 years from the house, the whole structure was ablaze. The flames spread so rapidly that all furniture and clothing was lost.

Sparks from the burning Brown home set fire to the house occupied by Clyde Miller , and owned by Robert Leadinger, of Dogwood Ridge. Only a small amount of clothing was saved from the blaze.

Anna, eight years of age, enacted the role of heroine, when she fought her way through the flames and smoke two save her younger sister, Maryland, aged two. Firemen stated they thought a cat or dog had been left in the house and they were shocked when the little girl led her sister from the blazing structure.

By the time the fire companies arrived on the scene, both houses were burning rapidly. Property loss was estimated at $1,000 for each house, unprotected by insurance.

Those made homeless are Mrs. and Mrs. Brown, and their eight children: Noah,10; Ellis, 14; Elza, 10; Anna, 8; Ernest, 4; Maryland, 2; Ruth, 8 months and Mr. and Mrs. Miller and their three children: Ray, 4; Lucille, 2, and Elbert, 7 months. [not mentioned but likely present was son Ralph Brown who would have been 6 yrs. old]* **

To the stricken families have come the services of friends and societies. They have been granted the use of a house at 6453 Bahner Road, Sciotoville and through the efforts of the Bureau of Community service, they have been supplied with food, furniture and clothing. In order that Christmas will not be bleak and unpleasant for the youngsters, the Boy Scouts have delivered several baskets of toy and holiday gifts. Through the effort of Fire Chief Robert Leelon (SP?) and members of the Fire Department two truck loads of furniture and clothing have been taken to the destitute families.

Firemen have taken up a collection and are aiding in collecting clothing and food for the destitute families. They ask for persons interested in aiding them to call the Gallia Street station. They will be glad to call for all donations in the way of clothing, food and money. Besides the Bureau of Community Service, the Salvation Army, the Union Mission and the Ben Our Lodge have given aid. Several citizens have also helped.

Bandits Draw Death-Cards In Poker-Game Hold-Up; Irate Player's Aim Deadly

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—(AP)— Peter Cardone, a Brooklyn manufacturing chemist, who is also an expert pistol shot was the recipient of hundreds of congratulatory messages today for killing two of four armed men who attempted to hold up a poker game early Sunday morning in the home of a friend.

Cardone, who was shot through the arm during a gun battle in which fourteen shots were exchanged, was more concerned than elated, however, because two innocent bystanders also were killed.

Police Commissioner Whalen personally congratulated Cardon, saying that the city needed more men with the courage and marksmanship to shoot when assaulted by thugs.

Ten men were engrossed in the poker game at the home of Fred Rendino in Brooklyn, when the four armed men appeared and ordered them to hold up their hands.

One of the intruders kicked Cardon on the shin when he failed to obey. Angered, Cardone drew his weapon and began firing.

Two of the bandits, indentified later as Pasquale Belmonte and Emanuel Frasca, were dropped by Cardone's unerring aim, shot through the forehead. Meanwhile, during the general melee, Rocco Massio, a chauffeur, who was an onlooker, was killed by a shot from one of the robbers while Nicholas Bulzone, one of the players, was killed when he jumped from a window. The other two hold-up men fled.

H. B. Murray Goes With Carrs Fork Coal Company, Successor With Peebles Brick Company Is Walter M. Wood

H. B. Murray, who for 17 years has been secretary and treasurer of the Peebles Brick Company has resigned. His successor will be Walter M. Wood. Mr. Murray had been identified with the company for 22 years. On next Wednesday he assumed the duties of auditor and credit manager of the Carrs Fork Coal Company, whose mines are located at Carrs Fork, Ky., and their offices in the Masonic Temple here.

Rotarians Feast On Venison; Pay Tribute To P. H. Harsha

With the tables tastefully decorated in keping with the Christmas season, the Rotary club held its meeting Monday noon at the Elks club parlors. In addition to the decorations, the waiters were all diked out in Santa Claus costumes. As a special treat the club feasted on venison, the gift of Rotarian Charlie Haunsel, who is reported to have made a lighted Portsmouth and other audiences, was present and gave several vocal selections for the pleasure of the Rotarians. Henry Bertram, the chairman of the meeting, made a short address, following which an early adjournment took place.

Silent tribute was paid to the memory of Mr. P. H. Harsha, a Rotarian, who passed away last Friday.

friends, as only a few knew of his illness, and it was not considered serious. Mr. Riedel was 73 years of age.

MRS. WELLS CRAWFORD

Mrs. Edith Pray Crawford, wife of Wells Crawford, assistant postmaster here, died at 12:55 a. m. Monday at her home, 1721 Hutchins street. She had been in poor health for three years, and her condition had been serious for several weeks. Her death was attributed to complications.

Mrs. Crawford, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pray, pioneer residents of Portsmouth, was born in this city on June 13, 1884. She was united in marriage to Wells Crawford, and to their happy union three children were born, Edwin and William, twins, and Wells, Jr. She is also survived by four sisters and one brother, Mrs. Bertha Brounell, of St. Louis, the Misses Nettie, Alice and Ruth Pray, of Hutchins street, and Charles E. Pray, who is in the West.

Mrs. Crawford was a member of Trinity M. E. Church and was affiliated with its various organizations. She was kind and charitable to all and possessed a wide circle of friends

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Pamela Brown - R. L. Peck Take Vows

Marriage vows were taken by Miss Pamela Sue Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest J. Brown, 241 N. 11th St., and Richard Lee Peck. Mr. Peck is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Peck, 39 Parker Ave.

The nuptials were read Saturday in the First Baptist Church with the Rev. Gordon B. Maywood officiating. The double ring ceremony took place before the altar which was decorated with vases of white gladioli and yellow daisies. Mrs. Leanor Lang, organist, presented a prelude of traditional music.

The bride had asked her sister, Mrs. Terry Walker, to be her matron of honor. Mrs. Michael McCollum and Miss Cynthia Brown, a sister, were bridesmaids. Miss Anita Brown, another sister, was a junior brides maid.

Tommy Brown and Quana Lisa Brown, brother and sister of the bride, were ringbearer and flower girl.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was Michael McCollum. Terry Brown, brother of the bride, and Keith Alexander, were ushers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of organza with empire lines and a removable Chanilace chapel train. Her elbow length veil of French illusion, was held by a crown of pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of daisies and white sweetheart roses.

The attendants gowns were of imported chiffon in empire styling and were trimmed with Venise lace daisies. The matron of honor wore yellow and the bridesmaids aqua. The junior bridesmaid and the flower girl both wore pink and all carried daisies tinted to match their gowns. Their headpieces were four tier veils held by clusters of daisies.

A reception followed the wedding in the YMCA with Mrs. Robert Royster the senior hostess and Mrs. Robert Morrison, and Miss Ann Roe assisting. Miss Carol Coble attended the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of Newark High School with the class of 1966 and is employed at the Newark Air Force Station.

Mr. Peck graduated from Newark High School with the class of 1966 and is serving in the Navy, stationed at Norfolk, Va.

After a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, the bride will live with her parents.

A Little Step Away

To close the eye, to fall asleep,
To draw a labored breath,
To find release from daily cares
In what we know as death…

Is this the crowning of a life,
The aim. or end thereof?
The totaled sum of consciousness,
The ripened fruit of love?

It cannot be, for works of God
Are wrought for nobler ends,
And those away continue on
In the hearts of kin and friends.

It cannot be, for they live on
A little step away.
The soul, the everlasting life,
Has found a better day.....

Waves, Knife, Arrested

Charles Litteral, a Mill street man created lot of excitement at the home of his father-in-law, Louis Brown in the East End on Wednesday evening., where he called to see his wife.

Litteral was under the influence of liquor and was in a fighting mood. Brandishing a knife he threatened to carve anyone who came near him. No one ventured near until Constable Abner Pyles, who lives next door hove in sight when Litteral fled and escaped. The officer gave chase and captured the fellow two hours afterwards and chief Davidson brought him to police station in an auto. No one showed up in police court Thursday morning to prosecute the case and Litteral got off with a fine of $480 [? $4.80] He is employed at the Portsmouth Steel Co. plant and is a bad actor and should have been severely punished.

Bandit Gang Staged Robbery To Get Funds

CHICAGO, Sept. 11—(UP)—Need of funds to defend alcohol gang leaders now in jail led members of the gang to stage a daring $135,000 mail train robbery here yesterday, police believed today.

The robbery was the work of the Saltis McErlane gang, according to Deputy Detective Chief John Stege. “Two Families, Eleven Children Are Made Homeless By Fire”

Tot Starts Blaze Which Destroyed Two Dwellings; People Destitute

Christmas will hold little joy for eleven children of two families who live in Sciotoville Near the C. & O. Bridge, as a result of a fire started by a tot, which destroyed tow homes and all household effects, Monday morning.

Ernest, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown had been given a sack with which to play. Standing in front of an open grate he lighted the paper and set the Christmas tree on fire. By the time the family removed the children, ranging between the ages of eight months and 16 years from the house, the whole structure was ablaze. The flames spread so rapidly that all furniture and clothing was lost.

Sparks from the burning Brown home set fire to the house occupied by Clyde Miller , and owned by Robert Leadinger, of Dogwood Ridge. Only a small amount of clothing was saved from the blaze.

Anna, eight years of age, enacted the role of heroine, when she fought her way through the flames and smoke two save her younger sister, Maryland, aged two. Firemen stated they thought a cat or dog had been left in the house and they were shocked when the little girl led her sister from the blazing structure.

By the time the fire companies arrived on the scene, both houses were burning rapidly. Property loss was estimated at $1,000 for each house, unprotected by insurance.

Those made homeless are Mrs. and Mrs. Brown, and their eight children: Noah,10; Ellis, 14; Elza, 10; Anna, 8; Ernest, 4; Maryland, 2; Ruth, 8 months and Mr. and Mrs. Miller and their three children: Ray, 4; Lucille, 2, and Elbert, 7 months. [not mentioned but likely present was son Ralph Brown who would have been 6 yrs. old]* **

To the stricken families have come the services of friends and societies. They have been granted the use of a house at 6453 Bahner Road, Sciotoville and through the efforts of the Bureau of Community service, they have been supplied with food, furniture and clothing. In order that Christmas will not be bleak and unpleasant for the youngsters, the Boy Scouts have delivered several baskets of toy and holiday gifts. Through the effort of Fire Chief Robert Leelon (SP?) and members of the Fire Department two truck loads of furniture and clothing have been taken to the destitute families.

Firemen have taken up a collection and are aiding in collecting clothing and food for the destitute families. They ask for persons interested in aiding them to call the Gallia Street station. They will be glad to call for all donations in the way of clothing, food and money. Besides the Bureau of Community Service, the Salvation Army, the Union Mission and the Ben Our Lodge have given aid. Several citizens have also helped.

Bandits Draw Death-Cards In Poker-Game Hold-Up; Irate Player's Aim Deadly

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—(AP)—Peter Cardone, a Brooklyn manufacturing chemist, who is also an expert pistol shot was the recipient of hundreds of congratulatory messages today for killing two of four armed men who attempted to hold up a poker game early Sunday morning in the house of a friend.

Cardone, who was shot through the arm during a gun battle in which fourteen shots were exchanged, was more concerned than elated, however, because two innocent bystanders also were killed.

Police Commissioner Whalen personally congratulated Cardon, saying that the city needed more men with the courage and marksmanship to shoot when assaulted by thugs.

Ten men were engrossed in the poker game at the house of Fred Rendino in Brooklyn, when the four armed men appeared and ordered them to hold up their hands.

One of the intruders kicked Cardon on the shin when he failed to obey. Angered, Cardone drew his weapon and began firing.

Two of the bandits, indentified later as Pasquale Belmonte and Emanuel Frasca, were dropped by Cardone's unerring aim, shot through the forehead. Meanwhile, during the general melee, Rocco Massio, a chauffeur, who was an onlooker, was killed by a shot from one of the robbers while Nicholas Bulgone, one of the players, was killed when he jumped from a window. The other two hold-up men fled.

As a special treat the club feasted on venison, the gift of Rotarian Charlie Hauval, who is reported to have made a lighted Portsmouth and other audiences, was present and gave several vocal selections for the pleasure of the Rotarians. Henry Bertram, the chairman of the meeting, made a short address, following which an early adjournment took place.

His tanker even fought.

Navy Veteran Comes Home After 10 Years

Ralph E. Brown, a pipefitter 2C in the navy, has returned to his tanker at Long Beach, Calif., after spending two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown, 6204 Bahner Rd., Sciotoville.

It was the first time in nearly 10 years that he had visited with his family.

He enlisted in the navy Dec. 28, 1941, was discharged in 1945, but remained in Hawaii on a civil service job.

A reservist, Mr. Brown was recalled to active duty last January and assigned to a tanker operating in Korean waters.

Even when the navy man was home on leave the war wasn't too far removed. He donated blood at Portsmouth General Hospital which made the 11th time he has given in the Red Cross blood collection.

Pipefitter Brown's tanker operated with the 7th Fleet, transferring more than 50,000,000 gallons of fuel since the start of the war to almost every type of warship.

The tanker has transferred fuel in enemy waters, at night, in mined areas and rough waters. and on occasion even has got involved in the fighting.

5 SONS IN WAR FROM ONE HOME AT SCIOTOVILLE

Trio Selects Navy, One In Army Air Corps, 4 Out Of States

Five sons in service, four of them overseas, and a sixth boy at home "rarin' to go" is the proud boast of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown of Front st, Sciotoville.

Three are serving in the U. S. navy, one in the army signal corps, and one in the army air corps, with service records ranging from four to 33 months.

First to enter service was Ernest James Brown, ship fitter third class, who entered the navy in October, 1941, even before Pearl Harbor was attacked. He has had two tankers lost under him somewhere in the Atlantic in a period of eight months.

March, 1943, he was aboard tanker when it was sunk in the Atlantic, and the experience was repeated the next November when another tanker was struck while he was among her crew. The second tanker was not destroyed but had to be brought back to port for repairs.

After November, 1943, Ernest went to school at the naval base in Richmond, Va., and was graduated as a welder. Recently he sailed on a new ship from New York his parents learned, and is again on the high seas.

The second son Ralph Earl Brown, shipfitter second class, volunteered for navy duty immediately after the Pearl Harbor disaster. After 21 days training at Great Lakes, he went directly to the great Hawaiian base, where he has received further training.

Until seven months ago, he was on duty at the naval air station at Kaneohe Bay on the island of Oahu in the Hawaiian group, refueling ships and planes. At that time his postoffice address was changed, and he has not been o tell his parents his exact eabouts, although he is in n in the South Pacific area.

Sgt. Ern E. Brown is the only one of the five still located in the States. He is serving as a "trouble shooter" in the signal corps at Ft. Ord Calif. An instructor in first aid there, he expects to be assigned to overseas dufy soon. He received his training at Camp Polk La. His wife is with him in California.

Only flying member of the family is Cpl. Elza M. Brown, who recently was promoted to the rank of sergeant at his base in [illegible]nd A tail gunner on a doesn't like to write home about it.

He has been in service for 17 months, having been graduated from Jonesboro college, Ark., and receiving training at Orlando, Fla., before going overseas in January of this year.

Noah Lewis Brown, the baby in service, went into the navy four months ago and sailed recently from Charleston, S. C., on an LSM A fireman first class, he took his training at Little Creek Va., and is now with an amphibious unit. His wife, Mrs. Hanna Mary Brown, and their four children, reside at 6444 Gallia st.

Earl 3 Born In Sciotoville

~~Ernest~~ and ~~Ralph~~, the two oldest of the five, were born in Kentucky, but the others were born in Sciotoville. All five attended East High school, where they showed an interest in sports, though only Ralph and Elza made the varsity football and basket ball teams.

Proud of the fact that she has contributed five boys to Uncle Sam's fighting forces

RALPH E. BROWN
His tanker even fought.

Navy Veteran Comes Home After 10 Years

Ralph E. Brown, a pipefitter 2C in the navy, has returned to his tanker at Long Beach, Calif., after spending two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown, 6204 Bahner Rd., Sciotoville.

It was the first time in nearly 10 years that he had visited with his family.

He enlisted in the navy Dec. 28, 1941, was discharged in 1945, but remained in Hawaii on a civil service job.

A reservist, Mr. Brown was recalled to active duty last January and assigned to a tanker operating in Korean waters.

Even when the navy man was home on leave the war wasn't too far removed. He donated blood at Portsmouth General Hospital which made the 11th time he has given in the Red Cross blood collection.

Pipefitter Brown's tanker operated with the 7th Fleet, transferring more than 50,000,000 gallons of fuel since the start of the war to almost every type of warship.

The tanker has transferred fuel in enemy waters, at night, in mined areas and rough waters, and on occasion even has got involved in the fighting.

Hi Brother -

I thought I would write you in regard to the incident in parking lot at the Mall -

Let us start off by my saying I am not Sorry for what I said!

I don't know what the deal was with her over which way we entered the mall - but when she said we were damn liars and she didn't believe us that pissed me off.

As I stated she is married to you and whether she believes you or not I care less - but to have her say I was a liar and she didn't believe me was the End.

If she didn't believe me then I don't want anything to do with her - I don't associate with people who don't believe or trust me.

I think part of her problem is she must have her way and last word about everything.

Several times when I was at your place she yelled and be-littled you - I want to say something but I didn't.

Several times when there and she carried on like that I wanted to grab my things and leave but I didn't - I wish I had.

How you can put up with it I don't know - But you don't have to worry about me coming down any more - I have made up mind If she doesn't believe me to my face what does she

Letter to Whitley

Selina when I am not around.

You know we talked at Joe + Fred - well I think you are in the same boat.

I have tried to be good to you too but at times when I was at your place I didn't feel really welcome. So I won't be coming back.

I realize you married her and for sake of your family -

You married her for better or worse so may God help you.

So many times when I was there all she wanted to talk was Linda and that dream House I was never really interested in it -

Or it was Gary and his stock up and down.

I don't know what her problem was Sat. afternoon but again I am not sorry for what I said or have written -

You are family and I'll always love you

Dad

His tanker even fought.

Navy Veteran Comes Home After 10 Years

Ralph E. Brown, a pipefitter 2C in the navy, has returned to his tanker at Long Beach, Calif., after spending two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown, 6204 Bahner Rd., Sciotoville.

It was the first time in nearly 10 years that he had visited with his family.

He enlisted in the navy Dec. 28, 1941, was discharged in 1945, but remained in Hawaii on a civil service job.

A reservist, Mr. Brown was recalled to active duty last January and assigned to a tanker operating in Korean waters.

Even when the navy man was home on leave the war wasn't too far removed. He donated blood at Portsmouth General Hospital which made the 11th time he has given in the Red Cross blood collection.

Pipefitter Brown's tanker operated with the 7th Fleet, transferring more than 50,000,000 gallons of fuel since the start of the war to almost every type of warship.

The tanker has transferred fuel in enemy waters, at night, in mined areas and rough waters and on occasion even has got involved in the fighting.

“Two Families, Eleven Children Are Made Homeless By Fire”

Tot Starts Blaze Which Destroyed Two Dwellings; People Destitute

Christmas will hold little joy for eleven children of two families who live in Sciotoville Near the C. & O. Bridge, as a result of a fire started by a tot, which destroyed tow homes and all household effects, Monday morning.

Ernest, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown had been given a sack with which to play. Standing in front of an open grate he lighted the paper and set the Christmas tree on fire. By the time the family removed the children, ranging between the ages of eight months and 16 years from the house, the whole structure was ablaze. The flames spread so rapidly that all furniture and clothing was lost.

Firemen stated they thought a cat or dog had been left in the house and they were shocked when the little girl led her sister from the blazing structure.

By the time the fire companies arrived on the scene, both houses were burning rapidly. Property loss was estimated at $1,000 for each house, unprotected by insurance.

Two Families, Eleven Children Are Made Homeless By Fire

Tot Starts Blaze Which Destroyed Two Dwellings; People Destitute

Christmas will hold little joy for eleven children of two families who live in Sciotoville, near the C. & O. bridge, as a result of a fire, started by a little tot, which destroyed two homes and all household effects, Monday morning.

Ernest, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown, had been given a sack with which to play. Standing in front of an open grate, he lighted the paper and set the Christmas tree on fire. By the time the family removed the children, ranging between the ages of eight months and 16 years, from the house, the whole structure was ablaze. The flames spread so rapidly that all furniture and clothing was lost.

Sparks from the burning Brown home set fire to the house, occupied by Clyde Miller, and owned by Robert Leadinger, of Dogwood Ridge. Only a small amount of clothing was saved from the blaze.

Anna, eight years of age, enacted the roll of a heroine, when she fought her way through the flames and smoke to save her young sister, Maryland, aged two. In order that Christmas will not be bleak and unpleasant for the youngsters, the Boy Scouts have delivered several baskets of toys and holiday gifts. Through the efforts of Fire Chief Robert Leslom and members of the Fire Department two truckloads of furniture and clothing have been taken to the destitute families.

Bandits Draw Death-Cards In Poker-Game Hold-Up; Irate Player's Aim Deadly

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—(AP)—Peter Cardone, a Brooklyn manufacturing chemist, who is also an expert pistol shot was the recipient of hundreds of congratulatory messages today for killing two of four armed men who attempted to hold up a poker game early Sunday morning in the home of a friend.

Cardone, who was shot through the arm during a gun battle in which fourteen shots were exchanged, was more concerned than elated, however, because two innocent bystanders also were killed.

Police Commissioner Whalen personally congratulated Cardon, saying that the city needed more men with the courage and marksmanship to shoot when assaulted by thugs.

Ten men were engrossed in the poker game at the home of Fred Rendino in Brooklyn, when the four armed men appeared and ordered them to hold up their hands.

One of the intruders kicked Cardon on the shin when he failed to obey. Angered, Cardone drew his weapon and began firing.

Two of the bandits, indentified later as Pasquale Belmonte and Emanuel Frasca, were dropped by Cardone's unerring aim, shot through the forehead. Meanwhile, during the general melee, Rocco Massie, a chauffeur, who was an onlooker, was killed by a shot from one of the robbers while Nicholas Bulzone, one of the players, was killed when he jumped from a window. The other two hold-up men fled.

Rotarians Feast On Venison; Pay Tribute To P. H. Harsha

With the tables tastefully decorated in keping with the Christmas season, the Rotary club held its meeting Monday noon at the Elks club parlors. In addition to the decorations, the waiters were all diked out in Santa Claus costumes. As a special treat the club feasted on venison, the gift of Rotarian Charlie Hau-

lighted Portsmouth and other audiences, was present and gave several vocal selections for the pleasure of the Rotarians. Henry Bertram, the chairman of the meeting, made a short address, following which an early adjournment took place.

Silent tribute was paid to the memory of Mr. P. H. Harsha, a Rotarian, who passed away last Friday.

friends, as only a few knew of his illness, and it was not considered serious. Mr. Riedel was 73 years of age.

MRS. WELLS CRAWFORD

Mrs. Edith Pray Crawford, wife of Wells Crawford, assistant postmaster here, died at 12:35 a. m. Monday at her home, 1721 Hutchins street. She had been in poor health for three years, and her condition had been serious for several weeks. Her death was attributed to complications.

Mrs. Crawford, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pray, pioneer residents of Portsmouth, was born in this city on June 13, 1884. She was united in marriage to Wells Crawford, and to their happy union three children were born, Edwin and William, twins, and Wells, Jr. She is also survived by four sisters and one brother, Mrs. Bertha Brounell, of St. Louis, the Misses Nettie, Alice and Ruth Pray, of Hutchins street, and Charles E. Pray, who is in the West.

Mrs. Crawford was a member of Trinity M. E. Church and was affiliated with its various organizations. She was kind and charitable to all and possessed a wide circle of friends
